

TRAINING

NGO PRACTICES

RESULTS

EVALUATION

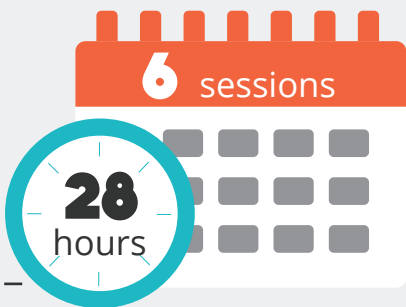

A SUITCASE FULL OF SOUNDS & IMAGES

2018-2019

A series of experiential trainings on film education and media literacy for trainers and youth workers of socially vulnerable groups.

TRAINING

22 trainees
11 NGOs

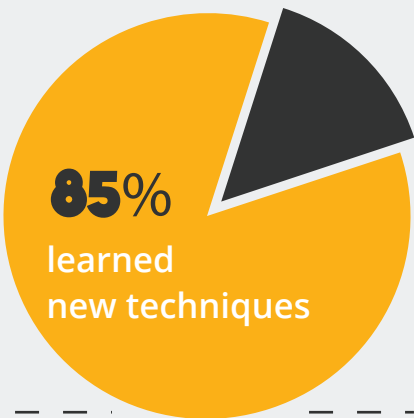

INTRODUCTORY EXERCISES

1. Photo frames
2. Collective documentaries
3. Digital Collages

MAIN WORKSHOPS

1. Photo-narration
2. Introduction to sound design
3. Animation

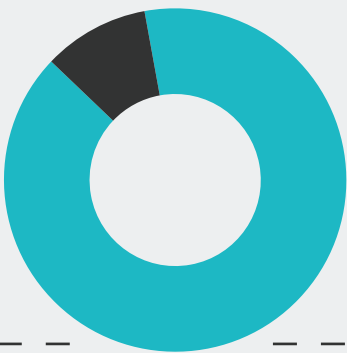

NGO PRACTISES

With groups of kids, teenagers and youngsters

Languages used during the workshops
60% greek
40% english

90% hadn't participated till then in any similar workshop.

73 hours

IN TOTAL

438 took part

8-25 years old
8 native languages

RESULTS

Introductory exercises

Getting to know each other with tablets

8%

54%

Frames (close up, medium & long Shot)

38%

Multimedia portraits with mobiles & tablets

Outputs

Collective documentaries

8%

30%

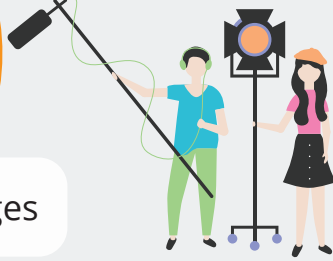

Animation

Photocomics

23%

Digital Collages

39%

EVALUATION

"What were the difficulties for you?"

80%

Time issues

Not familiar with some of the softwares

20%

60%

couldn't make decisions concerning the directing

Areas where the project contributed in a positive way

Creativity

Familiarization with new technologies

Teamwork

Personal expression

100%

of the participants would recommend this project to their colleagues

1 in 2 wish to continue the activities beyond the project's obligations.